FOUR-CORNERED RACE FOR GOVERNOR IS ON

Georgia Democrats Vote Today for Nominations, Which is Equivalent to Election.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 12.—Interest in Georgia's Democratic primary held today to nominate state officials and congressmen, centered largely in the four-cornered race for governor in which Nat E. Harris, of Macon, the only Confederate veteran now holding the office of governor of a state is opposed for renomination by Hugh M. Dorsey, of Atlanta; Dr. L. G. Hardman, of Commerce, and Joseph E. Pottle, of Milledgeville. Democratic nomination is considered equivalent to election. The campaign for the governorship has been made largely on local issues, and each of the candidates has virtually covered the state on speaking tours.

Eleven of Georgia's twelve congressmen, all Democrats, are seeking renomination, the only exception being C. G. Edwards, of the First district. Seven of the eleven who would return to Washington have opposition, while Congressman Edwards' place is sought by Peter W. Meldrim, of Savannah.

DON'T HAVE GRAY HAIR

It's Unnecessary — Q-Ban Darkens It Evenly—No Dye.

No matter how gray your hair, prematurely gray, faded, bleached, streaked with gray, all you need to do is to shampoo your hair and scalp once a day with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. This is a very pleasant experience, and after a few applications you will be delighted to see all your gray hair gradually turn to an even beautiful dark shade. Q-Ban acts on roots, making hair and scalp healthy, restoring the color glands so all your gray hair is naturally darkened and entire head of hair becomes soft, fluffy, long, thick and of such an even beautiful, soft, dark shade no one could tell you had used Q-Ban. Also stops dandruff and falling hair, leaving your hair fascinating and abundant, without even a trace of gray showing. LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

By S. W. STRAUS
President American Society for Thrift

"He that despiseth little things," said King Solomon "shall perish by little and little." Pennies are little things.

He who is able to feed and clothe your family as you do and put money in the bank, while I, with the same salary and a smaller family, can hardly make both ends meet?"

"Because," answered the other man, "I look out for the pennies." He worked so hard for his money he said that he could not bear to waste a cent of it. The saving of even the penny made him feel a free man—that if anything happened to him he would neither have to beg nor go to a charity institution.

Careful saving or thrift is one of the best habits to form. Perhaps the best because so many other good habits and good traits follow in its train. Once acquired it becomes a permanent trait. It gives such a feeling of security and independence. The pennies added to make dollars. A man may work ever so hard and receive a good salary, but unless he saves the pennies he will not get ahead. One hundred cents makes a dollar. One dollar at 6 per cent compounded for fifty years makes $18.42.

We, as a nation, are money-makers, but not money savers. We must begin to save now. The thrifty worker is usually the efficient, regular worker. The thrifty man has every chance in the world. His employer keeps him. Other employers desire him—the steady, thoughtful, wide-awake, industrious man, who thinks so much of his own future that he thinks also of the future of his firm. He is the man whose interests are one with those of his "house."

Thrift is always wholesome. Waste is always unnecessary and demoralizing. Prudence and moderation safeguard an individual and a nation.

The Danes are a wonderfully thrifty people and some of their methods are as original as they are worthy of imitation. The Danish farmers tether their cattle in rows in such a way that they can eat but a certain section of grass in a day. Next day they are moved forward in the meadows and it is worked out in such a minute basis that by the time the cows have reached the end of the pasture the grass is again ready for grazing at the place where they began.

The Danes understand the conservation of their resources, and, like all thrifty peoples, have learned through system how to save.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
